Toward the Third Millennium

United States Catholic Mission Association Priorities and Goals

1995-2000

Statement of Vision

USCMA, as an organization of Church-in-mission, must discern the call of the Spirit in a context of rapid, unsettling change both in the Church and in the larger world. Those arenas are characterized by energy, creativity, confusion, tension and conflict just as the arenas of Jesus' life were.

In the Church, our understanding of the mission of evangelization is evolving to embrace dialogue, community building, struggles for justice, efforts to model justice and faith in our lifestyles, activities and structures in addition to the teaching/preaching/witnessing role traditionally at the heart of the mission enterprise. Still, the contemporary "identity-confusion" about "mission" stands forth as a major challenge for USCMA as we move toward the 21st century.

The larger context of mission is the Spirit moving in the Signs of our Times: the liberation movements, the women's movements, the ecology movements, the rising awareness and celebration of cultural diversity, the search for ways to live peacefully and creatively with great pluralism, rapid technological change, the emergence of the global economy, the steady increase in poverty and injustice, the realigning of the global political order - and the many ripples radiating out from each of these.

The defining moments of mission seem to be emerging as the moments of cross-cultural/cross-faith encounter and shared, faith-inspired and faith-guided struggle for justice. The majority of the "carriers" of this mission task remain members of religious communities and/or clerics, but the numbers of laity are growing and point to a different future. The tensions among these groups are another arena of challenge and hope. Defining and responding to the differing needs of each is essential to the success of mission efforts in the Church of tomorrow.

The challenge before USCMA this year has been to rediscover its call within this welter of opportunity and need and to give shape to its action and commitments through a serious strategic planning effort. The fruits of that effort are here set forth.

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE:

The United States Catholic Mission Association unites and supports people committed to the cross-cultural and global mission of Jesus in service to Church and world.

GOALS AND STRATEGIES

I. MISSION IN THE CONTEXT OF PLURALISM

GOAL:

USCMA will seek to enable its members and its collaborators to enrich their understanding of mission in the current context of pluralism and tension so that they may respond more faithfully and constructively to the call of Jesus.

ACTION STEPS:

A. Dialogue and Joint Action on Catholic Mission Concerns

Plan to include three additional focus sessions during the 1995 National Conference:

- one for leaders of religious communities and their respective mission directors,
- one for diocesan clergy and diocesan mission office personnel, and
- one for laity.

B. Dialogue and Joint Action on Ecumenical Mission Concerns

Prepare a specific plan of action based on the four action proposals from the ecumenical mission consultation held in Atlanta, April 1994; namely in the areas of collaboration in mission orientation and continuing mission education, the development of an enhanced communications network and closer relationship between USCMA and the Church World Service and Witness Unit (CWSW) of the National Council of Churches.

C. Dialogue on and Study of Visions of Mission.

Convene a symposium of experts in missiology to explore the relationship between different visions of mission and the social contexts in which they have risen and flourished. The goal of the symposium is to enable individuals to uncover their own personal operational vision of mission in relationship to their perceptions of the needs of their own local context.

II. CROSS-CULTURAL / INTER-RELIGIOUS CHALLENGES

GOAL:

USCMA will strengthen its commitment to and involvement in the cross-cultural and inter-religious expressions of mission at home and abroad.

ACTION STEPS:

- A. Identify and network with all U.S.-based religious congregations, diocesan offices, other church groups, lay groups that send or receive missionaries to/from other nations.
- B. Discuss with these groups possible areas of collaboration and/or the co-sponsorship of programs to explore the principles of inter-religious dialogue and 'popular religiosity' as the basis for a more respectful and effective mission presence.
- C. Promote Forums in which:
 - 1. Returned Missioners share their experiences and learnings with the wider community;
 - 2. Minority peoples in the United States (Native Americans, African-Hispanic-Asian-Americans) speak of their struggles, their cultures and faith to the "professional" missionaries;
 - 3. The beliefs and practices of Islam and Christianity can be shared.
- D. Participate in the cross-cultural and inter-religious programs sponsored by other groups and disseminate the experience and conclusions.

III. WORLD MISSION OUTREACH

GOAL:

USCMA will continue to promote and support missionary activity beyond the boundaries of the United States.

ACTION STEPS:

- A. Publish a listing of educational/training programs for mission and global awareness in collaboration with the Church World Service and Witness Unit of the National Council of Churches.
- B. Collect, analyze and publish the statistics of U.S. missionaries serving overseas.

- C. Collaborate with training programs for missionaries going overseas - both ecumenical and others.
- D. Network with the Federation of Returned Overseas Missioners (FROM) and returned missionaries so that our mutual resources can serve the Church's global mission in the United States.
- E. Be in communication with, provide appropriate forums for, and participate in the activities of other groups dedicated to the promotion of overseas missionary activity.
- F. Publish articles on international mission in the USCMA Newsletter and Periodic Papers.
- G. Continue to support the writing of the U.S. Roman Catholic Church Mission Outreach.

IV. JUSTICE

GOAL:

USCMA will assist its members to understand better the essential and integral role of work for justice in all missionary activity and to speak and act prophetically for Gospel justice.

ACTION STEPS:

- A. Work collaboratively with its membership to develop instruments:
 - 1. To help individuals/communities examine how thoroughly they have integrated issues of race, gender, stewardship, and ecology into their communal and personal lives;
 - 2. To analyze how culture has affected and continues to affect the inner workings of mission groups.
- B. Expand its research, discussion, reflection focus to address the effects on the missionary gospel message of the encounter with God in the struggle for justice, and probe the dimensions of this issue in publications throughout the year.
- C. Serve as a clearinghouse for information and action regarding what USCMA members/groups are actually doing in justice areas here and abroad.
- D. Place articles in MISSION UPDATE about how striving for justice in the internal life of the community/individual has transformed their approach to mission.
- E. Survey the ecumenical literature on the role of work for justice as integral to the church's missionary activity and review the discussion regularly in MISSION UPDATE.
- F. Develop a strategy/process for handling resolutions on justice issues at the annual conference.

V. USCMA STRUCTURES AND ORGANIZATION

GOAL:

During the next few years, we will adjust the structures of the organization to reflect greater racial and ethnic diversity; to enable greater participation and ownership by all levels of membership in carrying out the activities of the Association; to develop and implement a systematic plan for promotion and fundraising; to insure greater accountability by USCMA Staff and Board to the membership; to provide added support for the national office.

ACTION STEPS:

- A. Regionalize the Association and identify regional coordinators.
- B. Develop strong communication links with all levels of membership.
- C. Develop a plan to increase the racial and ethnic diversity on the Board and in the membership to reflect better the racial and ethnic diversity of the U.S.
- D. Establish a committee to monitor the implementation of the strategic plan.
- E. Explore and develop a creative fund-raising plan.
- F. Develop a plan for welcoming volunteer workers and interns.
- G. Develop procedures for an annual evaluation of the Board by its members.
- H. Continue to build up a data base of:
 - a. People/groups engaged in cross-cultural and inter-religious research and activities;
 - b. Offices (both church and others) that keep current data on the changing 'cultural and religious face' of the USA.
- I. Participate in and promote electronic networking.
